THE EAST END BACK IN TIME...

Once upon a time the city of Toronto stopped at the east end. There were farms, estates, dairies, golf courses, stables and the Grand Trunk Railway. In fact, one of the reasons that East Toronto exists is because a community was built to house the railway workers. Imagine, there was no bridge across the Don River! Then in 1915 the Bloor Viaduct (an impressive bridge officially called the Prince Edward Viaduct and designed by Edmund W. Burke) was built across the Don River Valley taking four years to complete. Today we don't live on farmland anymore! Broadview Avenue and Danforth Avenue are seen as a gateway into the thriving eastern part of the city. The popular Bloor Viaduct is 26 metres wide and 494 meters long and carries five lanes of busy traffic on the top deck plus two-way subway train traffic on the lower deck.

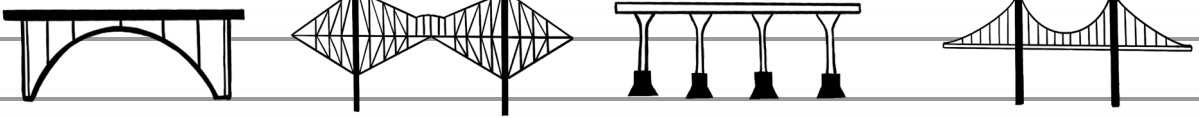

The Bloor Viaduct being built in 1918 (from Toronto Archives).

Draw an imaginary bridge! What does it connect?

 FUN FACT: There are 7 different types of Bridges!

1. Arch Bridge 2. Cantilever Bridge 3. Beam Bridge 4. Suspension Bridge

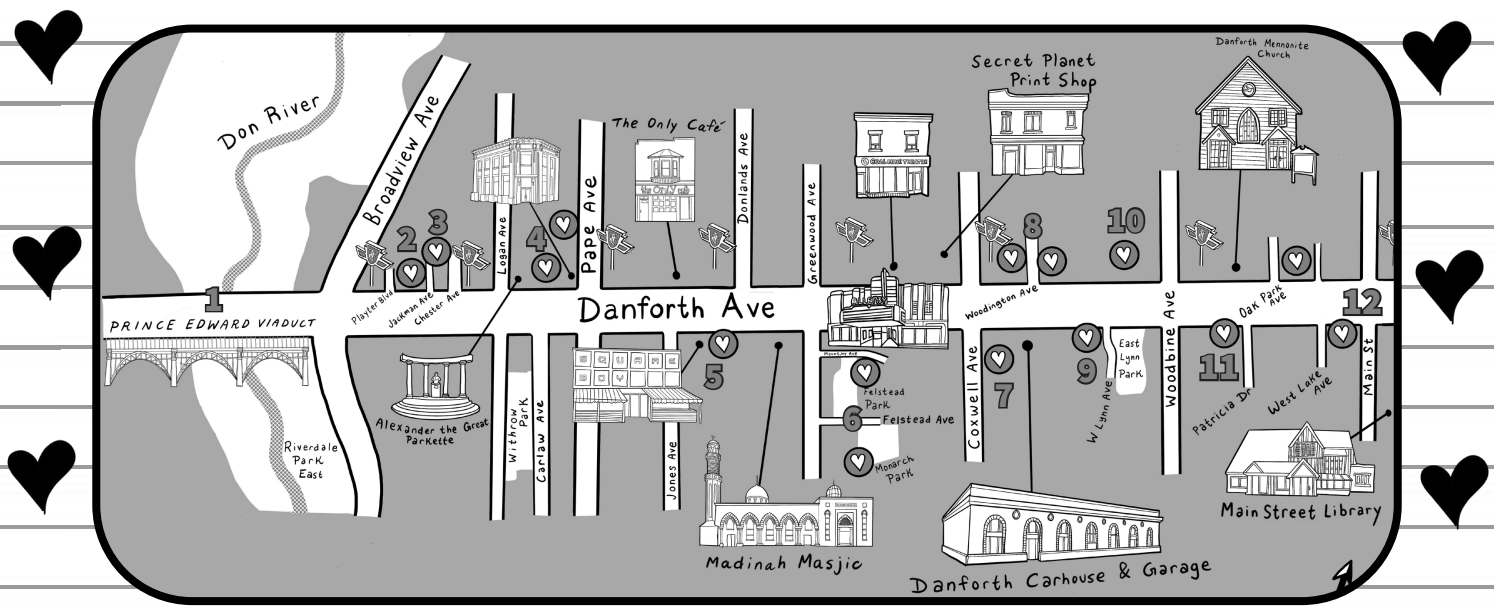

5. Truss Bridge 6. Cable-Stayed Bridge 7. Tied-Arch Bridge

Do you know what kind of bridge the The Bloor Viaduct on page 1 is? (Answer on page 7)

LOCAL DISCOVERIES TOUR #1: DANFORTH LOVE

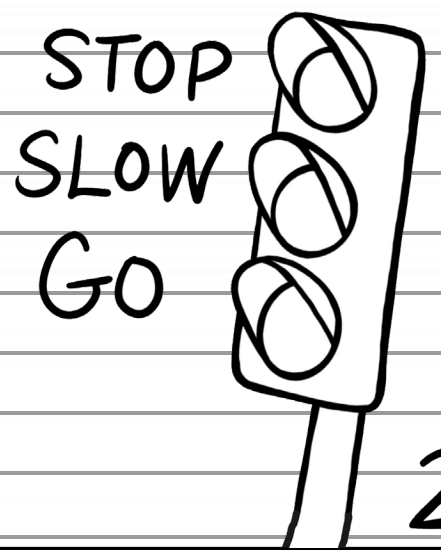

East End Arts is thrilled to present a series of walking and bike tours celebrating the vibrant street art in the neighbourhoods we love! Tour #1, Danforth Love, starts at Broadview and Danforth Avenue and travels east!

STREET SAFETY TIPS!

Before you head out on your tour, here are some good tips to keep in mind:

1. Stop at the curb or edge of the road before crossing, and never run into the street
2. Look and listen for traffic to the left, then to the right and then to the left again
3. Cross at the street corner at a light or at a cross walk (wait for cars to fully stop before you walk! Try to make eye contact with the driver)
4. Always watch out for bikes travelling in bike lanes
5. Never go between parked cars to cross the street

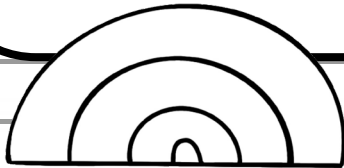

THE PUBLIC ART TO FIND:

This is like a scavenger hunt! Find the selected works on pages 3-6 of this workbook as you're exploring Tour #1!

FIND:
Neighbourhood Love,
by Monica Wickeler
2020

This mural is about motion and sending LOVE to local stores and storekeepers. Meet your friends and come back out into the community! Can you identify your home or your favourite places on the map?

What is your favorite street? Map it out here. Include everything - the shops, houses, street signs, trees:

STAY STRONG

FUN FACT: The chalk drawing STAY STRONG is based on a sidewalk drawing by a kid! Find the Stay Strong tattoo on a person in this mural!

FIND:
Colours of the Danforth,
by PoserABM
2020

This piece celebrates all the light and energy of the Danforth. Which buildings do you recognize from the neighbourhood shown in this mural? Night time magic! What colour is the light coming out of the buildings? What does it make you think of? A speedy road? A beam of light? People rushing in or out?

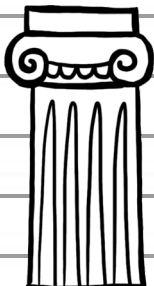

Fill this section with night colours:

FUN FACT: The columns in front of the historic Church of the Holy Name (beside Poser's mural) are a hybrid or composite of Ionic and Corinthian styles of columns (see ArtSkool Issue #1 to learn more!) and it was designed by architect Arthur W. Holmes to resemble the Basilica di Santa Maria Maggiore in Rome, Italy.

"Now I will do nothing but listen. I hear all sounds running together, combined, fused, or following, sounds of the city, and sounds out of the city - sounds of the day and night..." - Walt Whitman, poet.

FIND:
Giants of the Danforth,
by Elicser Elliott, with Spyone,
Flips, Maysr & Sight
2020

Elicser hangs out in the neighbourhood of his murals, watching the people who call the place home and elevating their small moments into larger than life, colourful celebrations of life. This work reflects diversity and our close connection to where we live.

This box is your home. Add windows and faces. Make them all different. What connects the people in the windows? Is it LOVE?

FIND - BONUS MURAL!
"2020-1955",
by Elicser Elliott, Spyone, Sight & Nick Sweetman,
2020

The colours of the street are contrasted with the black and white and gray realities that are too often the case in our world on this mural at the back of 975 Danforth. This work challenges us to remember that "the enemy of justice is ignorance allied with power".

SAFETY TIP! Be mindful that some of these mosaics are situated at the rear of a parking lot, consider observing from the sidewalk!

FIND:
Butterfly Laneway,
by Nick Sweetman + Others
2019

This is a collection of murals that celebrate butterflies and pollinators. Nick Sweetman organized this event, and it was funded by the David Suzuki Foundation in honour of National Pollinator Week.

When you find the laneway, can you see a painted garage with the words METAMORPHOSIS? And a wall with the words WHO ARE YOU?

Think about changes in nature and changes in neighbourhoods. Have you ever moved your home? Have you experienced any BIG changes in your life?

Tip: How to strengthen your Resilience!

1. Tune in to how you feel
2. Take your time and pay attention
3. Look after yourself
4. Be a good friend by listening and being kind
5. Set goals

A great example of metamorphosis is a caterpillar transforming into a butterfly. Can you put the life cycle of a butterfly in order? Write numbers 1-4 in the circles to determine the correct order.

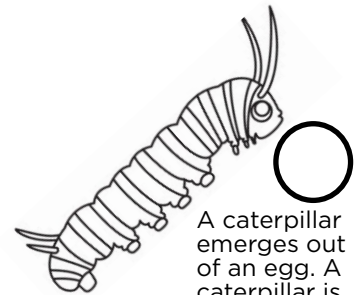

A beautiful adult butterfly emerges and is ready!

A female butterfly lays an egg on leaves or plant stems.

Once it has eaten enough and is fully grown, the caterpillar becomes a pupa, which is also called a chrysalis.

A caterpillar emerges out of an egg. A caterpillar is the larva of a butterfly.

FIND:
Nookfest Laneway
Transformation,
by an assortment of artists
2018

This laneway was filled with murals as part of the 2018 Nookfest. We can see some of our favourite east end mural artists. This is a great example of how public art can transform laneways, bringing brightness and colour to forgotten urban spaces.

Did you find a mural with monsters? Now draw your own monster here!

BONUS! Can you find a woman with a caterpillar scarf in Graffiti Alley East?

★ THE ART OF BEING ★

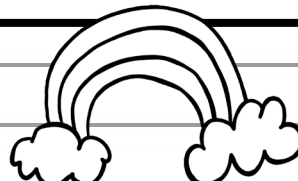

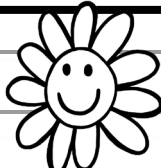

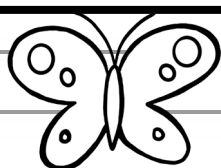

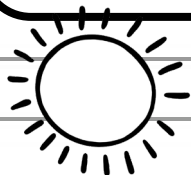

The world will be in your hands one day. Look for two hopes in each volume of Artskool! Let's find some...

Love

Sharing your life with others makes your life infinitely richer. Family and friends are some of the most important gifts we receive in life. Honoring those relationships strengthens your bonds, and helps everybody feel more connected.

Respect

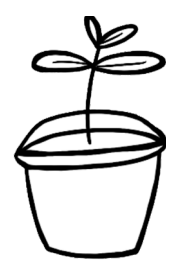

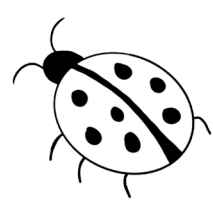

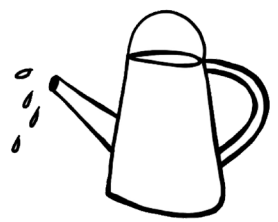

Even the most humble of creatures deserves basic respect. Be a steward of the earth. Get out into nature and explore, because you never know what might be beneath that next rock.
